

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Saint John Lutheran Church

Hattiesburg, Mississippi

May 12, 2019

Welcome!

"How great is the Love the Father has lavished on us!" (1 John 3:1).

We are thankful that you are joining in the worship of the people of God this day. Ushers at the door are glad to assist you at any time.

- Please check that cell phones are silenced.
- Restrooms are located down either hallway to the right.
- Prayer requests may be written on the white cards in the pew rack and given to an usher before worship begins, or as you leave.
- A nursery is available to parents as needed, down the first hallway to the right.
- Activity bags to help keep young children occupied during the message are provided in the back right corner of the sanctuary.
- Please tell us a bit about yourself on the Record of Friendship during the collection of the offering.

About the Offering

An offering is gathered today during the worship service. Here the people of God bring their tithes and sacrificial offerings as an expression of their discipleship, and for the continuation of Jesus' mission work, both in this community and to the ends of the earth. Guests are not expected to bring financial gifts, but are welcome to join the congregation in offering their prayers and praises.

About Holy Communion

Today we celebrate Holy Communion. In this, we remember that the divine is united with the created as one in the person of Jesus.

This altar is the Lord's table. Here all are welcome who acknowledge their need for a Savior, and look to Jesus. We believe what he simply says about the bread – "This is my body, given for you." – and about the wine – "This is my blood, shed for you." Thus, the Lord Jesus is truly present for his redeemed people in this holy meal. In this we retain the divine mystery in the midst of his ordinary creation. From the many seeds of wheat come one loaf. From the many grapes are pressed one cup. His many diverse people constitute one body and community of faith.

Young children are welcome to this altar to receive a blessing, as are those who have not been instructed in the Christian faith. Please indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest or by simply asking for a blessing.

The individual communion cups in the center of the tray have white grape juice for those who desire it. Gluten-free wafers are available at distribution upon request.

We are imperfect people and we live in an imperfect world. We are all in this together. So when we believe or act wrongly towards someone, or when we feel that another has wronged us, we commit ourselves to the humble teaching and forgiving pattern of Jesus in Matthew 18.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

+ GATHERING +

Prayer As We Begin — Please stand.

☩ Heavenly Father, as we come before you this morning in Jesus' name, we pray all that we say and do in our worship will give you glory. Help us, Lord, to focus our thoughts on you, so your Word will find fertile ground in our minds and hearts. May the worship service today accomplish in us the purpose you desire. Amen.

The Invocation, Epistle Reading, and Hymn of Praise

℟ In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

☩ Amen.

Epistle Reading

Revelation 7:9-17

The Epistle for the Fourth Sunday of Easter is from the Revelation to Saint John, chapter seven. We are not alone in our festival worship. The Church on earth joins a great multitude, the angels and archangels and all the company of heaven to laud and magnify God's glorious name!

⁹After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, ¹⁰and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" ¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

¹³Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" ¹⁴I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁷For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

℟ This is the Word of the Lord.

☩ Thanks be to God.

Salutation and Collect Prayer

☒ The LORD be with you.

☑ And also with you.

☒ We pray together...

☑ Almighty God, merciful Father, since You have wakened from death the Shepherd of Your sheep, grant us Your Holy Spirit that, when we hear the voice of our Shepherd, we may know Him who calls us each by name, and follow where He leads; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

+ WORD +

The First Reading

Acts 20:17-35

The Reading from the History of the Early Church is from the Acts of the Apostles, chapter 20. The Apostle Paul bids his final farewell to the Ephesian church leaders, with whom he had lived for three years by God's grace planting the Church in that place, which is today a part of the modern nation of Turkey. As he completes his Third Missionary Journey, Paul anticipates the sacrifices and hardships that are yet awaiting him for the sake of the Gospel and the kingdom.

¹⁷Now from Miletus [Paul] sent to Ephesus and called the elders of the church to come to him.

¹⁸And when they came to him, he said to them:

"You yourselves know how I lived among you the whole time from the first day that I set foot in Asia, ¹⁹serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and with trials that happened to me through the plots of the Jews; ²⁰how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house, ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. ²²And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, constrained by the Spirit, not knowing what will happen to me there, ²³except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me. ²⁴But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. ²⁵And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will see my face again. ²⁶Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, ²⁷for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. ²⁸Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God, which he obtained with his own blood. ²⁹I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; ³⁰and from among your own selves will arise men speaking twisted things, to draw away the disciples after them. ³¹Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish everyone with tears. ³²And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³³I coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. ³⁴You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities and to those who were with me. ³⁵In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

C Glo - ry to You, O Lord.

²²At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter, ²³and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the colonnade of Solomon. ²⁴So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."
²⁵Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me, ²⁶but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock.
²⁷My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one."

L This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of you, O Je - ru - sa - lem.

+ MEAL +

This is Christ's table. Our Savior invites those who trust in him to share the feast which he has prepared. In this meal we truly receive the body and blood of our risen Savior, Jesus Christ. This is a great and divine mystery! Here we are joined with God and all the saints, and receive the blessings of forgiveness, life, and salvation. Young children and those who would prefer to receive a blessing are welcome to come forward.

The individual communion cups in the center of the tray contain white grape juice. Gluten-free wafers are available at distribution upon request.

Theme:
"Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb." Christ alone secures salvation for believing Jews and Gentiles. He temporally and eternally anchors those persecuted for believing, asserting, and preaching divine truths. In the midst of strife, sin, disease, and death, God shepherds His people into eternity. As His sheepish people, we listen to His voice. So also we receive the living waters of Holy Baptism where He asserts His claim on us forever.

LUTHERAN CAMPUS MISSION

Campus Mission — Welcome to all college students! We're glad you're here. Please check in with Pastor John after worship today (or text/call at 318.332.3352).

Easter Lily Money — Last call for Easter Lilly money. Thanks!

May Church Newsletter — Always available online. Printed copies available at the lobby mailboxes.

Two Sunday Morning Classes — We would love for all people to actively search the scriptures together with other Christ-seekers. Our regular Sunday morning adult classes are: "Screwtape Letters" in the Community Room and a new class "The Resurrection Appearances of Jesus" in the Fellowship Hall. Sunday school for children, youth, and adults begins at 9:15am.

Lutheran Women in Mission (LWML) are collecting DONATIONS for 200 Regular Bath Towels needed for Lutheran World Relief Kits for the National Convention in Mobile, Alabama (June 20-23, 2019). These donations are for "Servant Events" on Opening day. Please place your DONATIONS (towels, cash, or Gift cards) in the Box provided or give to Mary Cubley or Chris Noffke. Thanks!

Oktoberfest Meeting — Next Sunday, May 19th in the Community Room following worship. We'll be working on a final list for mission funding partnerships. All are welcome and encouraged to participate. Mark Key is the Oktoberfest team leader.

Live at Five — Last one this spring. Join the other folks from Saint John and the whole community at this outstanding event. If you've never been, then this Friday is your chance!

Neighborhood Party — End of School Bash

The End of School Bash will be held at the church from 11am-1pm on Saturday, May 18th. As always, we will have fun games and activities for the children as well as a visit from our local Fire Department and Library.

We need volunteers to work the game stations, the grill, and to bake cupcakes. If you are able to volunteer, please sign up on the double wooden doors.

Church Picnic — Save the date: Sunday, July 21st following worship.

Loitering Please — We love it when worshipers linger in the sanctuary, lobby, or other parts of the building to listen in conversation, offer encouragement, discover what God is doing in the lives of his people, and discern ways to extend his kingdom of grace to those around us in helpful ways!

Lobby Expansion — Please see the series of three emails from Thursday of this past week. Stapled copies are available at the red wall credenza along with the handouts from last Sunday. We thrive on your feedback, concerns, and suggestions. Please use the process provided on the yellow handouts. Written feedback is most helpful. We're excited! Thanks!

Contributions Statements — First quarter thank you letters are in foyer mailboxes. An important financial update is included. Please check the note at the bottom of the letter.

Red Letter Challenge Book Money — We're wrapping up bills and such related to the Red Letter Challenge. This is the Last Call for the $15/book or whatever you can afford. Please remit separately from your regular offering. Thanks!

Camp Dixie Lutheran Outdoor Ministries (Elberta, AL) is in need of camp staff for the 2019 Summer Program. If interested please see Gabby in the office for more information.

The Stinnetts in Ethiopia — The educational missionary family we sponsor in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia have released their April newsletter. It was emailed to those on our email list this past Thursday. Printed copies are available at the lobby mailboxes.

National Youth Gathering — Two youth, one college student, and one pastor are signed up from our congregation to attend the 2019 National Youth Gathering July 11-15 in Minneapolis, MN. We're thankful that we have $2,600 in the bank of the anticipated $5,600 in costs, which are significantly higher this time because of housing and travel expenses. Here's our main fund-raiser for the next six weeks:

National Youth Gathering Envelope Wall

Here's how it works: There are 100 envelopes pinned to the black bulletin board in the church lobby. On each is written a dollar amount from $1 to $100. This is so that everybody can participate, even the young children, because this is a congregational project. Those who are willing take the envelope(s) of their choice from the wall and fill with an amount that at least matches the number on the envelope, then put them in the offering plate on Sunday. (Make checks out to Saint John.) It's OK to take them home. This is a good way to include family and friends, whether in the area or farther away, who love this church, our youth, and our mission. Everyone can participate! If all the envelopes are filled to their face value, we'll raise $5050. Special thanks to June Songy for finding, figuring out, and preparing the Envelope Wall. This fundraiser ends in six weeks on Father's Day, June 16th.

“Come and See” — Recognizing New People as Mission Partners — Sunday, June 30th. We're preparing to recognize what God is doing in bringing new people into the regular worship and mission life of this congregation. We believe that God calls us together by his redeeming Good News of sins forgiven in Christ Jesus, to live according to his purposes, and that we as his people have a mission from him to the world, to make him known ... his grace, his welcome, his kingdom. If you've begun worshiping with us regularly and you sense this calling, we'd like to recognize these things on June 30th. We've planned a couple of “Come and See” gatherings to share more about how our congregation sees itself and its place in what God is doing. We invite you to join with some of the elders and pastor John on either Sunday evening, June 9th at 6pm or Monday evening, June 10th at 6pm. If those times don't work, please let us know, we'll gladly make another time available in June. Thanks!
